

Forgotten Homeless

Hovers on the edges of life, a melancholy figure,
Sadness in her eyes, weep for yester year,
Lines on her face, show pain and fear,
Alone, forlorn and watching:
The manic lives of others- traffic drones,- lovers on a bench their hands entwined, - laughing children chase a ball,
Unaware her suffering, forgotten by society,
Silent, a hidden secret,
she just keeps moving on.
